

In consideration of the environmental impact of the construction industry, recycling whenever possible is the responsible route to take. Gila River Sand and Gravel participates in recycling using refuse concrete from tenant producers. In the past other companies customarily buried the waste concrete. Here it is reclaimed and reused to make Recycled Concrete ABC. It can be used as Natural ABC except in certain conditions.

